

PTM Employment Statement of Policy

It is the policy of PTM of Attleboro, Inc. that there will be no discrimination against an individual because of such individual's age, mental or physical disability, place of birth, race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy), sexual preference, marital status, national origin, creed, ancestry, veteran status, retaliation, political or union affiliation in matters of all employment practices, including, but not limited to, recruitment, hiring, discipline, discharge, promotion, transfers and seniority of personnel. PTM of Attleboro, Inc. takes the following commitments to uphold our EEO/AA Policy:

- Commits to follow our Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Policy for all persons regardless of the individual's age, mental or physical disability, place of birth, race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy), sexual preference, marital status, national origin, creed, ancestry, veteran status, retaliation, political or union affiliation,
- Commits to undertake an affirmative action program that includes goals and timetables in order to overcome the effects of past discrimination on minorities and women,
- Commits that the responsibility for the implementation of the Program is assigned to PTM of Attleboro Inc.'s Administrative Manager,
- Commits that all management personnel share in the EEO/AA responsibility and will be assigned specific tasks to assure compliance is achieved,
- Commits that applicants and employees have the right to file complaints alleging discrimination with the appropriate official,
- Commits that performance by managers, supervisors, etc. will be evaluated on the success of the EEO program the same way as their performance on other agency's goals, and
- Commits that the successful achievement of the EEO program goals will provide benefits to PTM of Attleboro, Inc. through fuller utilization and development of previously underutilized human resources.